CONSUMPTION

Miss Camp to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Camp have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Lucy, to Mr. George Ferguson Armstrong on Wednesday morning, the fourth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five at ten-thirty o'clock at the First Baptist church in this city.

This wedding will be one of the most prominent social events in Ocala this winter. There will be quite a number of attendants and in every detail the wedding will be most beautiful. Miss Camp is the eldest daughter of Col. and Mrs. Camp and is a very charming and accomplished young woman. She has made many friends during her short residence in Ocala since her return from Europe early in the fall.

Mr. Armstrong is a prominent young business man of Savannah, and is very popular in social as well as business circles.

Miss Sallie Camp, sister of the bride, will act as maid-of-honor, and Mr. Armstrong's partner, Mr. Strachan, of Savannah, will be the best man. The other attendants will be Miss Pallie Dekle, of Marianna, Miss May Camp, of Franklin, Va., Misses Annie and Jessie Nurney, of Suffolk, Va., an i Messrs. George and Frank Camp, of White Springs, Robert and Ryland Camp, and Joseph Norfleet, of Franklin, Va., all cousins of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Cuba, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will be at home at the DeSoto hotel, Savannah.

Those invited to the wedding are requested to present cards at the door.

A Little Boy Hurt.

Little D. C. Hull, Jr., of Atlanta, who is on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Francis Howse, on Ocklawaha avenue, was quite badly hurt Sunday afternoon.

The little fellow was attempting to mount the little Sheldahl pony belonging to his cousin, Bernard Koonce. Instead of putting his foot in the stirrup he slipped completely over the pony and fell to the ground, twisting his arm under him. His arm was quite badly broken just at the elbow, and the little fellow suffered great pain.

A physician was called and set the broken arm, and he is now getting along splendidly.

Coughing Sorel Caused Death.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which lasted for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901.

Attempted Burglary.

Burglars attempted to break into Mr. T. W. Smith's home Monday night. Mr. Smith filled the midnight air with buckshot, but the intruder escaped apparently unhurt. This is the fourth or fifth time in the past two years that persons have tried to break into Mr. Smith's residence, and he says he believes the use of the shot gun cure is the only way in which he can make the marauders think that he don't mean to be robbed.

Of Interest to Mothers.

Thousands of little ones die every year of croup. Most of them could have been saved by a few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar, and every family with children should keep it in the house. It contains no opiates and is safe and sure. Mrs. George H. Pickett, San Francisco, Cal., writes: "My baby had a dangerous attack of croup and we thought she would choke to death, but one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved her at once after other remedies had failed. We are never a minute without it in the house." Postoffice drug store.

Butler-Fisher.

A marriage which was solemnized at Waldo Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock was of much interest to many of the young people of Ocala who have met the bride while on her visits to the Misses Moore in this city.

Miss Bessie Butler was married to Mr. Leslie Fisher at the home of her parents. Miss Grace Moore was maid of honor, while Miss Clara Moore played the wedding march for the happy occasion.

Miss Butler is one of our sister city's most popular and charming young ladies, while the groom is a young business man held in the highest esteem by all who know him.

More Room Needed.

The business of the Florida Plumbing & Electric Co. having grown to such an extent as to make larger and more commodious quarters necessary, they will, after Jan. 1st, occupy the largest of the new stores in the Ocala House block. They will materially increase their stock of plumbing and electrical supplies and be prepared to do all work in these lines according to the latest and best improved methods.

Associated with this company will be a gentleman, well known in Ocala, representing one of the best known makes of both automobiles and gasoline engines, who will be prepared to take care of everything in those lines. These people employ only skilled mechanics and any work entrusted to them will be well taken care of.

Mr. and Mrs. Camp to Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camp will give a big dance at their beautiful home on Camp Heights on the evening of January fourth in honor of Miss Pallie Dekle, of Marianna, Miss May Camp, of Franklin, Virginia, and Miss Sallie Camp, of this city. The young people of both the older and younger society sets have been asked and quite a number of the married people as well, and this affair is being looked forward to with much pleasure.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Postoffice drug store.

Herbert B. Turner & Co., publishers, corner of Summer street and Atlantic avenue, Boston beg to announce that they are about to publish a little story entitled "Griselda," by Miss Marion Elizabeth Grey, a young lady of remarkable talent, who resides in Arlington. Miss Grey's book treats of the childhood of an odd little girl, her moods, whims, and misunderstandings with her aunt. The story is very human and pretty and will take the reader back to childhood days, days of misunderstandings as well as joys.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Looney and Miss Florrie Crook were present, and an exceedingly pleasant evening was spent playing progressive whist, after which supper was served.

An Approaching Marriage.

On December 28 one of Ocala's well known real estate owners will be united in marriage to one of Indiana's fair daughters. The announcement cards will soon be issued.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, dizziness, headache, liver or bowel trouble. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c. at Tydings & Co's drug store.

Mrs. Thomas G. Bright and her sister, Mrs. Murry and her little daughter, of Toronto, Canada, arrived in Ocala Saturday. They will occupy the little cottage on South Third street next to Mr. Carlisle's for the winter. Mr. Bright will arrive after Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Bright are regular winter visitors to Ocala and their friends are always delighted to have them come.

The next visit of Dr. E. T. Allen, the eye and ear specialist will be Thursday, Dec. 29, at the Montezuma Hotel. Glasses correctly fitted.
